Section 1302. Governing Body - The governing body of the LA FRA is the NBOD of the FRA and any action taken by the NBOD of the FRA in relation to the LA FRA shall be subject to the provisions of Section 508 and Section 802, FRA C&BL.

Section 1303. Distinction from FRA - The LA FRA is sponsored by the FRA, however, its members shall not pay dues to the treasury of the FRA, nor shall they have any vote in the affairs of the FRA, unless specifically authorized in the C&BL, FRA or in the SR of the FRA.

Section 1304. New York Charter - The FRA recognizes the Ladies Auxiliary as formerly organized and Chartered by the State of New York. Units which were organized under said Charter shall be recognized by the FRA and its Branches as legally constituted Units, provided such Units were recognized by Branches. Section 1305. Membership Eligibility - Membership eligibility shall be determined by the LA FRA in compliance with Internal Revenue Service regulations governing membership in the auxiliary of veteran's organizations.

Section 1306. Organization - The LA FRA shall have authority to establish a National Organization, to organize groups to be known as Units, to levy dues for membership therein, to form Regions, to elect and have National Officers, and to adopt a C & BL, and amend same. Said C& BL and any amendments thereto, shall be submitted to the National Board of Directors of the FRA for ratification.
